

Victorian Inventions

Inventions are all around us and new things are being invented everyday.

Inventions such as the iPhone and computers are very new inventions compared to things that were invented in the Victorian times.

The Victorian period saw many major inventions that made travel and communication easier for many people.

Victorian Inventions Timeline

1838

First photograph taken.

1839

Pedal bicycle was invented.

1839

Pedal steamboats were invented.

1840

First postage stamp used.

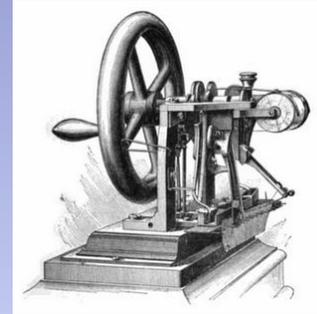

1845

Rubber tyres were made.

1846

The sewing machine invented.

1849

The first glider was built to be flown by a pilot.

1852

Flushing public toilet opened in London.

1855

Safety match invented.

1860

The first horse drawn tram.

1863

Underground railway is opened, all powered by steam.

1876

The telephone was invented.

1879

Electric light bulb was invented.

1885

The petrol motor car was invented. It had 3 wheels and could go 4mph.

1888

The Kodak box camera was invented
It became extremely popular.

1894

Moving pictures were invented.

1895

X-Rays were invented.

There were many other inventions such as ice cream,
post boxes, typewriters, jelly babies and radios.