The Viking Times

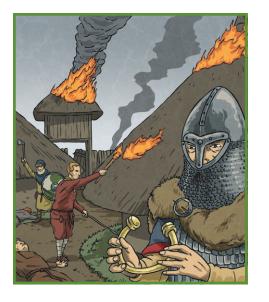

We Have Arrived!

AD787

After an arduous journey 4 across the North Sea, we 9 have finally reached our 13 destination - England. 15 feeble, afraid The 18 Englishmen tried to 21 cease us but we were 26 too powerful and fought 30 our way, as brutally as 35 was necessary, onto the 39 green and lush land. 43

48 We are here to find
51 treasures (and probably
55 steal them) before we
60 return to our homes in
63 Norway, Sweden and
64 Denmark.

- 70 Our first raid was of the
- 73 monastery at Lindisfarne,
- 78 which was not very well

- 81 protected and contained
- 85 valuable goods like gold
- 88 and jewels, imported
- 92 foods and other useful
- 95 materials for trade.
- 99 England is more pleasant
- 103 and lucrative than we
- 104 thought!

1. Which word means 'stop?

2. Where did the Vikings come from?

3. Find two adjectives which are antonyms of each other.

4. How does the Viking's view of England change?

The Viking Times

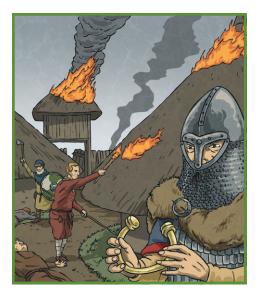

We Have Arrived!

AD787

After an arduous journey 4 across the North Sea, we 9 have finally reached our 13 destination - England. 15 feeble, afraid The 18 Englishmen tried to 21 cease us but we were 26 too powerful and fought 30 our way, as brutally as 35 was necessary, onto the 39 green and lush land. 43

48 We are here to find
51 treasures (and probably
55 steal them) before we
60 return to our homes in
63 Norway, Sweden and
64 Denmark.

- 70 Our first raid was of the
- 73 monastery at Lindisfarne,
- 78 which was not very well

- 81 protected and contained
- 85 valuable goods like gold
- 88 and jewels, imported
- 92 foods and other useful
- 95 materials for trade.
- 99 England is more pleasant
- 103 and lucrative than we
- 104 thought!

- 1. Which word means 'stop? Accept: cease.
- Where did the Vikings come from?
 Accept: Norway, Sweden and Denmark.
- 3. Find two adjectives which are antonyms of each other.

Accept 'powerful' and 'feeble'.

4. How does the Viking's view of England change? Accept reference to the fact that at the beginning, they are just coming to steal before returning home, but by the end they are more positive about England and considering staying.

