

Then and Now: Knowledge Organiser

DID YOU KNOW

- Europe is a one of the 7 continents in the World.
- The 7 continents are: Africa, Antarctica, Asia, Australia, Europe, North America, and South America.
- It is made up of many different countries. Each of these have their own flag, culture, food, national dress and capital city.
- There are many different landmarks in Europe. Some of these are man-made e.g. The Eiffel Tower, Big Ben, The Brandenburg gate.
- Others are natural e.g. Mountains, rivers, etc.

VOCABULARY			VOCABULARY
atlas		A book of maps	man-made features		not made naturally E.g.
albatross		a large bird with long narrow wings	Mediterranean Sea		a narrow opening or crack of considerable length continent		a continuous area of land	mountain		a large mass with great height and steep sides that are higher than a hill anguish		Great mental or physical pain	natural features		part of the land. E.g. rivers, mountains etc authority		A power or right to give orders.	region		an area country		a large area of land where people live under the same government.	Rome		the capital city of Italy bewildered		Greatly confused	river		a large stream of water blighted culture		government set of morals and traditions from a certain place	symbols		show features on a map collided		Forceful impact	volcano		a mountain/hill made from molten rock hemisphere		half of any sphere, either of two halves of the earth.
composure		Ability to stay calm
Italy		a European country
crescendo		Lowest point reached
key		a list of symbols on a map
cascaded		Pour downwards rapidly
maps		a diagram of an area of land or sea.
dinghy		A small inflatable boat
distraught		Someone who is very troubled			